

Poland Evaluates SPYDER Point-Defence System

Poland has been named as a new operator of the SPYDER surface-to-air missile system, a mobile air defence system firing Python and Derby interceptors.

The SPYDER acquisition gives Poland a short-to-medium range point defence capability against aircraft and cruise missiles.